Death Skid Marks is a fun game but it is way to RNG based.

you pick a car and as you play you can add up to 3 other passengers. you can arm them with melee or ranged weapons or even give them the ability to repair, heal, or arm them with 1 use weapons (mines, bricks, missiles, ect). they each have different states that you can boost as you play. the point is to find a concert ticket for all your people as you try to take out most anything else on the road.

6.5V10 fun game but needing the stars to align just right to win is a bad flaw.
